WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING HIGHLY- INTERESTING

Excellent Program Entertains Good Sized Audience; Interesting Talks by Physicians Give Valuable Information.

The splendid program at the Woman's Club this afternoon attracted scores of non-members as well as club women who were entertained by the excellent musical numbers and edited by the instructive addresses of two of Albuquerque's leading physicians on topics of peculiar interest in this high altitude where nervous exhaustion frequently occurs, and at the beginning of the flu and mosquito season.

The musical numbers by the pupils of Mrs. Luther Stewart covered the students with glory and reflected great credit on their instructor. These performers ranged in age from the young ladies in their teens to women dames of 5, 6 and 7 years. The addresses of the physicians held the close attention of all present, and their wise suggestions on methods of health preservation will no doubt be practiced and result in inestimable aid to the physical pulse of Albuquerquians.

Following is the program in full: Leader—Mrs. Margaret Cartwright Piano solo, "Feast of Roses"; Miss Margaret Cartwright Piano duet, "The Keepsake"; Jessie Strong and John Steward Address, "Causes and Prevention of Exhaustion"; Dr. W. G. Hope

AN EXTRAORDINARY MAN

Alexander Irvine, Preacher Turned Socialist, Praised by Crookman.

Alexander Irvine, who will lecture in the Elks' theater Tuesday night on "Socialism," is one of the most extraordinary men in public life in America today. Of this remarkable man James Crookman in Pearson's Magazine says:

"I saw him in the pulpit of the church of the Ascension, his lean shaven face and dark eyes shining with enthusiasm. He preached his sermon and then invited his congregation to go at once to the parish house and take part in a Socialist debate. Mr. Irvine is an extraordinary character. He is tall and thin and has the face of Thomas Jefferson. A pedestrian of great power, and yet he has the gravity and dignity of a monk, the pleading eloquence and imagination of a poet with just a touch of the thunderous street orator."

YOUNG men are known to be rather critical of style in clothes; sometimes they pay more attention to style than to quality. We make a point of having both for you, by having clothes. See the new drop front two button coat; a very swagger model which will please every one of you. No harm in older men wearing it; but we have lots of others to show.
